SECTION B: [20 MARKS]

You are advised to spend about 50 minutes on this section.

There is a serious case of drug and alcohol abuse in your community which has resulted in juvenile delinquency. The local authorities have organised a sensitisation meeting to address the scourge. During the meeting, you were tasked to take down key notes in order to compile a report to be presented to your area Member of Parliament (MP).

The following are the notes for you to use when writing the report:

– parental care not adequate
– schools too far away
– increased number of street children
– more drinking places, few schools and clinics
– too much corruption
– people living in fear
– increase in the number of junkies
– police officers overdrink
– teenage pregnancies on the rise
– adults not helping the situation
– shebeens at every corner
